Fair Lass finished well. John Coulter and In Bond tired after an early display of speed.

Berendos got away poorly, but closed up ground steadily and finished fast. Sea Lion was speedy, but failed to stay. Educate closed a gap from a bad start. Handpress was outrun and crowded out of position repeatedly.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Ed Lilburn was lucky, turned into the stretch close to the rail and finished fast under a vigorous ride. Modicum was probably best, but went the longest way and was weakly ridden at the finish. Stunts got away badly, but closed up with a rush in the stretch. Greyfeld, particularly favored by the stiff going, came fast through the stretch, wore the tiring pacemakers down at the end and won in the last stride. Frank Woods forced the pace in going he dislikes with bad result and was easily best. St. Sever, favored by the slow track, ran a game race and shows steady improvement. Sunello tired and quit. GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

During the last few days a number of foals have been dropped in the Blue Grass studs, some of which may prove interesting from a horseman's point of view. They are as follows:

At Castleton Stud, the property of J. R. and F. P. Keene—

Brown filly, by Kingston—Optime, by Orme.
Chestnut filly, by St. Leonards—Merry Dance, by Petrarch.

Chestnut filly, by St. Leonards—Hampton Belle, by Hampton.

At La Belle Stud, the property of H. P. Headley—Bay colt, by Hamburg—Semper Fidele, by Long-fellow.

At Nursery Stud, the property of August Belmont—

Bay colt, by Madison—Carlotta, by Kingfisher.

Prominent breeders are scouring the country to locate the stallion Perblaise, by St. Blaise—Perhaps, by Australian. This move is due to the fact that Roxane, now owned by S. Sanford & Sons, Hurricana Stud, Amsterdam, N. Y., is by him, and a review of his get shows that of his eight starters so far to race he has seven winners. John E. Madden trained Perblaise, and when done racing Milton Young, his breeder, bought him of James E. Pepper, into whose hands he had fallen. While owned by Pepper he sired the filly which has turned out to be the good racer Roxane. A few years since Young sold Perblaise to some man in Kansas, and there all trace of the now noted stallion ends, as the rumor of the horse being located on a breeding farm in Illinois has proved, upon investigation, to be without foundation. If alive, Perblaise is but fourteen years old and several seasons of usefulness in the stud still lie before him. He is a half brother to Reckon, for which mare Capt. S. S. Brown paid $17,100 at the closing out sale last fall of the horses owned by A. H. & D. H. Morris.

We have been wont to take pattern from English methods in racing. The Sportsman has this to say with regard to the last race of the day run recently at Gatwick Park: "Rose Wreath, winner of the Manor Steeplechase at Gatwick on Saturday afternoon, was objected to on the ground of crossing, but as the stewards had left the course before the race was decided, the matter remains in abeyance. Minting Lass completed the course, but the judge had left the box, and the clerk of the scales had also departed before Day (the filly's jockey) returned to the weighing room. The absence of officials to deal with the complaint lodged by the rider of Celebration was strongly commented upon, the more so when a rumor obtained currency that both the placed horses had missed an obstacle." What would be said if such a thing happened in this country?

It is rumored that because of the fact that the New York and Port Chester railroad may tunnel under Morris Park instead of cutting through it, there may be racing there for several years to come in spite of the fact that the Westchester Association has already planned to operate at the new Belmont Park next season. But in view of the difficulty in finding room in the schedule for all of the tracks now working under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club, it is generally believed that when Belmont Park is opened Morris Park will be closed forever, as far as the turf is concerned.

Burns & Waterhouse expect to send their shifty little Missouri-bred horse, Corrigan, east to run in the Suburban, and hope Bullman will ride him. He ran a good race for a three-year-old in the Burns Handicap last winter, and a youngster likely this year to emulate that example is M. J. Daly's Claude, if he is not raced stale in the meantime. He has won but two races this winter, but should have taken two others, and, after being interfered with at the stretch turn, was beaten but a short head for third money in the New Year Handicap.

J. R. & F. P. Keene have ordered the following mares, which recently arrived in this country from England, sent to Castleton Stud, and they will arrive there from Messrs. Keene's New Jersey training quarters during the week:

Running Stream, ch. m, 5, by Domino—Dancing Water.

Noonday, ch. m, 5, by Domino—Sundown.

Kate Glover, br. f, 4, by Kingston—Bonnie Gal.

The latter filly is a half sister to Cap and Bells. The five-year-old chestnut stallion Armeath, by Enthusiast or Athling—Millog, a recent Keene importation, will also come west with the mares to do stud service at Castleton.

Trainer J. C. Milam is being besieged with offers for his six-year-old bay mare Northumbria, by Ben Strome—The Humber, by Bread Knife. Milam raced Northumbria successfully. She is a full sister to Eugenia Burch. Milam bred her to Goodrich last year, and she is expected to foal soon. He has refused $2,000 for this mare on several occasions.

W. T. McGrath has sold Ben Battle for $2,000 and Lady Radnor for $1,500 to a western man and both will be raced as jumpers. Ben Battle is a full brother to the good horse Jim Megibben, raced so successfully by A. Shields, part owner and trainer of Advance Guard.
